Synopsis: Long-distance telephone call placed from residence of EVERETTE HOWARD HUNT to #813-293-6895, which is subscribed to by JACK M. BAUMAN, 600 Lake Martha Rd., N.E., Winter Haven, Fla.

[REDACTED] Interview of BAUMAN and documents made available by him reveal that as of 12-21-71, HUNT was associated with ROBERT R.
MULLEN & CO., Washington, D.C. and was looking for an individual having technical ability as photo engraver, locksmith, and photographer. HUNT and unknown individual met with BAUMAN in Miami Beach on 12-28-71 at which time HUNT advised he was developing a security program for the Republican Party and requested BAUMAN to join him in this endeavor.
Records of BAUMAN reveal that he met with HUNT in Room 604, Playboy Plaza Hotel which may have been rented under the name GEORGE LEONARD. Subsequently in January, 1972, BAUMAN met with HUNT and unknown individual in Washington, D.C. where he declined offer of HUNT re employment. BAUMAN believes HUNT may have used alias of E. J. or E. WARREN. THOMAS CHRISTOPHER AMATO, Satellite Beach, Fla. declined employment with HUNT. Records of Fla. Real Estate Commission re EUGENIO ROLANDO MARTINEZ and BERNARD L.
BARKER set forth. Telephone call made from Playboy (U)

[REDACTED] was located and interviewed at his place of residence 600 Lake Martha Road, Winter Haven, Florida by SA BRUCE W. DANDO and SA JOHN ERVIN WILLIAMS on June 23, 1972. (U)

At the beginning of the interview Mr. BAUMAN was advised of the identity of interviewing FBI Agents and informed agents desired to ask him questions and seek information relative to a Mr. EVERETT HOWARD HUNT, specifically contacts with Mr. HUNT, associations with Mr. HUNT and any information he may have relative to present and past activities of Mr. HUNT. Mr. BAUMAN was furnished an "Interrogation; Advice of Rights" form which he read and signed in the presence of interviewing agents. (U)

[REDACTED] Mr. BAUMAN stated he was a former employee of the CIA having entered the service in [REDACTED] (U)

b3
b7E

[REDACTED] Mr. BAUMAN stated he has known Mr. HUNT whom he calls HOWARD HUNT, since about 1953 as a professional friend and associate. (U)

[REDACTED] He stated he has always had a great respect for Mr. HUNT professionally and considers him completely loyal to the U.S. and an honorable person. He stated he and HUNT were never social friends, however, they have met on occasions and had lunch together over the years they have been acquainted. He advised Mr. HUNT was a former supervisor with the CIA [REDACTED] (U)

[REDACTED] He stated Mr. HUNT was an accomplished writer and extremely capable individual who was well qualified in the security field. (U)

b7E

Mr. BAUMAN stated he had no contact with Mr. HUNT after his retirement, excepting a Christmas card. In December, 1971, he received a telephone call or a letter from HUNT requesting a contact with him. He advised he could not recall details of this communication at this time. He advised in the exchange of telephone calls or letters he agreed to meet Mr. HUNT in Miami, Florida as he had to go to Miami in December to consult his doctor. He stated he met Mr. HUNT at the Playboy Hotel, room number not recalled but thought to be on the 9th floor, Miami Beach in December, 1971. He did not recall the name the room was registered in at the Playboy Hotel. He stated Mr. HOWARD HUNT was with another man in the room and this gentleman was not known to him and was not fully introduced to him. He continued that this was not unusual in the security business where information was usually given on a need to know basis and he was not concerned about this individual inasmuch as he was with Mr. HUNT. At this meeting Mr. HUNT indicated he was working at the White House in Washington, D.C. as a consultant and in his, BAUMAN's opinion, most likely as a writer. Mr. HUNT was very vague regarding his activity but he reached the opinion that it was related to security most likely for the Republican Party. Mr. HUNT wanted to know if he was in physical condition that he could work with him and indicated that the work might be for the Republican Party. Mr. BAUMAN stated that he would have to talk with his wife and doctor before giving him an answer. Mr. HUNT was extremely vague and made no salary offer. Mr. BAUMAN stated he was under the impression that HUNT was setting up a security organization to protect the Republican Party, possibly from political espionage, as HUNT gave him the impression that the security of the Republican Party was about as organized as a "fire drill on a Chinese junk". He stated the individual who was with Mr. HUNT did not enter the conversation but in his opinion this individual was likely a superior to Mr. HUNT in whatever business he was engaged. u

TP 139-182

He stated he received a call from Mr. HUNT in January, 1972, from Washington, D.C. and proceeded to go to Washington by train for contact with Mr. HUNT and this trip was made at Mr. HUNT's expense. Mr. BAUMAN advised he had other personal business in Washington, D.C. not related to Mr. HUNT. u

He stated he stayed at the Hay-Adam Hotel where he had reservations in his own name. He contacted Mr. HUNT by telephone through the White House switchboard and made an appointment. Mr. HUNT, accompanied by the same individual who was with him in Miami, Florida, came to his hotel room. He described this individual as a white Caucasian, Anglo-Saxon American, age 40-46, black hair with slightly receding hairline, height - approximately 5'9"; weight about 160 lbs., apparently well educated and likely an attorney. u

Mr. HUNT was very vague and talk was very similar to that in Miami. He advised Mr. HUNT that he would not be in a position to work fulltime for health reasons. He stated that from the conversation he again thought Mr. HUNT was possibly engaged in security work for the Republican Party and that Mr. HUNT possibly wanted him because of his knowledge and many contacts in the Washington, D.C. area [developed during his employment with the CIA.] (U)

He advised he was of the opinion Mr. HUNT was working at the White House more likely for the Republican Party than for the United States Government. u

Mr. BAUMAN stated he could not recall dates, letters, telephone conversations and full details of meetings with Mr. HUNT from memory; however, it was possible he could by searching his papers locate notes or letters regarding this matter and would make any information he located available. BAUMAN stated he did not know BERNARD L. BAKER, FRANK CARTER, VIRGILIO R. GONZALES, RAUL GODOY, EUGENIO ROLANDO MARTINEZ y CREAGA, GENE VALDEZ, FRANK ANTHONY FIORINA or FRANK A. STURGIS. u

He stated he has known Mr. JIM McCORD [redacted] (U)

[redacted]. He advised that to the best of his knowledge, Mr. McCORD [redacted] was an administrator; however, he had been in a supervisory capacity [redacted] CIA at one time. ~~Mr.~~ BAUMAN stated he had not been contacted by any of his former associates or any other organizations regarding the reported entries into the Democratic National Headquarters at Miami, Florida. ~~(U)~~

JACK M. BAUMAN, 600 Lake Martha Drive was contacted at his residence. He was advised of the identity of the contacting Agent and that he was being interviewed in connection with the same matter he had been previously interviewed concerning on June 23, 1972. BAUMAN advised that he was reasonably certain that he met HOWARD HUNT between Christmas and New Years and that he met him in a room on an upper floor of the Playboy Hotel. He stated that as best he can recall he felt that he got off the elevator on the 9th floor. He stated he did not go to the desk as he had HUNT'S room number available to him when he went to the hotel. He stated that the room that HUNT was in appeared to be lived in. u

BAUMAN advised that he would search through any miscellaneous papers he has left in an effort to positively identify the room at the Playboy Hotel. BAUMAN advised that he would telephonically contact SA ROBERTS if he located same. u

Mr. BAUMAN contacted SA ROBERTS and advised he had been able to locate his "pocket day-timer" for the month of December, and on the entry for December 26, 1971 it reflects:

"Playboy Plaza Hotel

Mr. BAUMAN advised he had never heard of AMATO before receiving this communication. u

BAUMAN stated that after receiving the second note from HUNT he was called by him. HUNT advised him that he was getting together a "capability" in the security field and mentioned he was associated with what BAUMAN believed to be the Republican Party. HUNT mentioned he had an office in the White House. HUNT did not explain his duties at the White House. BAUMAN stated that he felt that HUNT'S duties would consist of writing as he was a writer. HUNT claimed to have a number of things going on and mentioned that the ROBERT R. MULLEN & CO. was a Public Relations firm with which he was associated. u

BAUMAN advised that the ROBERT R. MULLEN & CO. was not known to him, and he has never been to an office of that firm, or met anyone, other than HUNT, associated with it, as best he knows. u

HUNT also asked about AMATO [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] BAUMAN advised HUNT that AMATO was unknown to him. HUNT asked BAUMAN to contact AMATO to see if he would be interested in going to work for the security group he was forming. u

b3

HUNT also said he was coming to Miami in the near future and would discuss AMATO further. BAUMAN stated he told HUNT that it all sounded very mysterious and at that comment HUNT stated that it was a legitimate operation for promoting security standards for the Republican Party. u

BAUMAN advised that he assumed that HUNT wanted to establish an organization to protect the Republican Party from political espionage, to screen employees, and establish files security. u

BAUMAN further advised that he felt that HUNT desired to acquire a capability to develop informants who could provide information of interest to the Republican Party. At no time did HUNT discuss technical aspects of security. u

BAUMAN advised that HUNT was vague, but promised to furnish additional information in person later. u

BAUMAN advised he told HUNT he was going to see his

He stated that the WSBR notation is a radio station which he frequently listens to in the Miami area because of the music it plays. He further advised that 202-347-0355 telephone number is not recalled, but may relate somehow to HUNT. The entry reads as follows: v

5445 Collins
865-1500
4:30 - 28 Dec 71
George Leonard
Room 604
H. H."

BAUMAN advised "H.H." would be HOWARD HUNT. He stated that the name, GEORGE LEONARD is unfamiliar to him. He stated he does not feel that HUNT would have used a pseudonym on him but the room was perhaps registered in the name GEORGE LEONARD. v

HUNT never indicated that he was LEONARD. v

BAUMAN advised he travelled to Miami for a medical appointment, and on December 28, 1971, went to the PPH. He stated that upon entering, as best he recalls, there was a bar on the left and a bank of elevators on the right. He took an elevator to the sixth floor and upon leaving the elevator turned to the left and walked to the end of the hall where there was a double room alcove. He entered the room on the right when the door was opened by HUNT. The room appeared to be lived in. There was another man in the room with HUNT. He stated he had never seen the man before. He was a white male between 38 to 42 years of age, 5' 8" to 5' 10" in height, 160 pounds, black hair, receding slightly. He was well dressed in a conservative suit and gave the appearance of an attorney. The man was introduced by a first name, which he is unable to recall. v

He stated that he and HUNT exchanged general comments and then HUNT outlined in general terms that there was a need to develop a security program for the Republican Party. HUNT gave him the impression that security of the Republican Party was similar to a "firedrill on a Chinese junk," and he got the impression that HUNT felt that there should be a method of screening employees and securing information. v

HUNT, after commenting on this, asked BAUMAN if it would bother him to work for the Republican Party, and asked if he had any political party preference. u

BAUMAN advised he did not have any political preference. He further advised that he began to feel that HUNT wanted him to be a security consultant. He stated that no duties regarding the work HUNT had in mind for him were mentioned. He was told by HUNT that he would have his expenses paid and salary was open. No further mention was made of salary. u

HUNT then brought up the name AMATO, whom he referred to as CHRIS AMATO. BAUMAN advised he informed HUNT he had not done anything about AMATO and did not know him. He stated that he told HUNT that he (HUNT) must know someone who knew AMATO and could help him. u

BAUMAN stated that he told HUNT that before he could commit himself to work for him he had to give the matter some thought and discuss it with his doctor and wife. u

BAUMAN stated he informed HUNT he would be willing to help on referrals and suggestions and could help in Miami when HUNT is in that area. They agreed to meet later and discuss the matter further. The third man never joined the conversation and appeared to be an associate. He stated that he had no reason to question his presence since he was with HUNT. u

BAUMAN advised that he felt that the meeting was purely exploratory to see if he was interested, and physically capable of working. u

HUNT mentioned he was still interested in AMATO. u

The meeting was terminated with the agreement that they would contact each other at a later date. There did not seem to be any apparent urgency. u

BAUMAN advised that he was subsequently recontacted at his residence by phone call from HUNT. He stated that he told HUNT that he had plans to be in Washington, D.C. in the indefinite future to conduct some personal business. HUNT offered to pay his expenses if he would travel to Washington, D.C. to see him in January of 1972. He stated that he advised HUNT he would travel to Washington by train and would make his own arrangements for hotel accommodations. u

He stated that during the first week in January he traveled by train to Washington, D.C. and stayed at the Hay-

Adams Hotel. He stated that he had reservations in his own name. He called several acquaintances in connection with interests he has in regard to public school security, a pet project upon which he has spent considerable time and effort. u

As best he recalls he called HUNT through the White House switchboard. He set up an appointment for the next day. On the following day HUNT appeared at his room at the Hay-Adams Hotel with the same man he had met with HUNT in Miami. u

HUNT rehashed the information he had given him in Miami and advised that he desired to form a cohesive organization for the acquisition of accurate information using legitimate procedures. u

BAUMAN advised that he asked HUNT to tell him exactly what he wanted him to do, and HUNT told him that he had to know if he was interested before he could tell him. BAUMAN told HUNT that he understood that HUNT wanted him to work full time, setting up a security operation to continue through the National elections. u

BAUMAN advised that he asked what salary he could receive but HUNT did not furnish any salary data. u

BAUMAN advised that he assumed, but was never told, that HUNT wanted to use his expertise of information gathering through covert investigation. He stated that if this was the case it would require more of him than he could do considering his present health. u

He stated that he felt that anything HUNT mentioned to him would be based on high ideals and not in any manner underhanded and was for the purpose of establishing some degree of order, security and handling of information on the part of the Republican Party. u

HUNT stated that he was a consultant at the White House and mentioned that the man with him was an associate. He stated that HUNT never mentioned in what field he was a consultant, but he assumed it was in the writing field. He further assumed that HUNT'S background with CIA had caused him to become concerned with the apparent lack of political security of the Republican Party in general. HUNT indicated u that he was working more as a political party figure than as a government employee. ~~(U)~~

The other man again did not contribute to the conversation. u

He stated that he noticed that the man was wearing initialed cufflinks and the initials did not appear to correspond with the first name he was introduced by, which he does not recall. u

He stated that he told HUNT, very strongly, that he did not think he could help him and HUNT asked if he could furnish him with the name of anyone else. He advised that he would give it some thought. HUNT asked him if he would contact CHRIS AMATO to see if he would be interested in working and travel to Miami for interview. HUNT requested that he not mention his name to AMATO and gave him a name to furnish AMATO. He stated that he could not recall the name. He stated he told HUNT he would call AMATO and see if he would travel to Miami for interview. Thereafter, HUNT and his companion left. u

The following day HUNT called BAUMAN at his motel room and asked if he had checked his mail slot at the hotel desk, mentioning that he had left some expense money for him. u

He stated that he checked the mail slot and found a plain envelope with $400.00 in cash in it. u

Upon return to Florida he telephonically contacted AMATO through the address on his prospectus and mentioned several mutual acquaintances each had and asked him if he was interested in working. He told him someone in Washington, D.C. was interested in someone with his background. AMATO asked who and he told him he would tell him when he saw him.

BAUMAN advised that he drove to Satellite Beach, Florida accompanied by a neighbor friend from Winter Haven, Florida. He stated that the neighbor had absolutely no knowledge of the business at hand and was along merely for company. He stated that he desires to keep the name of his neighbor out of the matter due to the fact that he is elderly and has had several heart attacks. u

He stated that upon meeting AMATO at his residence he found him to be an older man in an over weight condition. They had a pleasant meeting, and during part of their conversation he mentioned to AMATO that a man in Washington, whom he identified using the pseudonym given to him by HUNT, was interested in a man with his background. BAUMAN advised that he asked AMATO if he would object to working for a man who was strongly Republican. AMATO advised he had no strong political feelings and advised BAUMAN he was interested in working if he did not have to travel. He stated that he told AMATO that the man interested in him was setting up a security operation and would be able to clarify the employment if he met him in Miami. He left AMATO with the understanding that he would be contacted and furnished with details for a Miami meeting. u

BAUMAN advised that he called HUNT later and advised him that AMATO was a little over age and suggested that he call and set up his own meeting. u

He stated he got a call from HUNT later and HUNT advised that AMATO never showed up at the meeting, and upon being contacted telephonically advised he could not meet him because he had just had a new boat delivered. HUNT asked him to recontact AMATO. He stated that he called AMATO and AMATO stated that he had decided that he did not want to travel. u

He stated that he had one more call from HUNT and from the conversation got the impression that meeting with AMATO never came about. u

BAUMAN advised that on January 11, 1972, he sent a letter to HUNT advising him that he could not accept his offer and enclosed a list of his expenses as experienced when he traveled to Washington, D.C. A copy of this letter minus the list of expenses, which is not available, follows: u

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

11 Jan 72

Dear Howard,

Enclosed is an itemized list of expenses (not all inclusive) covering my recent trip to Washington. As you are aware, I did devote part of Saturday and all of Sunday to other activities and also had a number of meetings with other people interspersed throughout my schedule. v

Unfortunately, the person with whom I wished to make contact no longer holds a position wherein any further contact would be of value. However, I did explore, in a most tender and delicate manner, other possibilities up until train departure time on Monday. I had drinks with a contact at the Savarin Restaurant in Union Station and something might possibly develop from this; however, motivation is about 10% ideological and 90% money - as is life for most, I guess. v

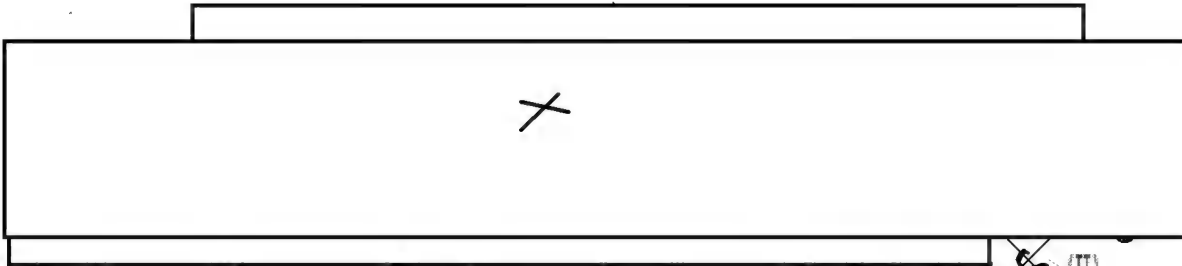

I have given the most careful and serious consideration to your offer and regret that I must decline. Though you are not, as you so clearly emphasized, interested in my personal considerations, they are over-riding. Aside from the time, pressure, travel and other requirements, method of payment and tax/retirement fund problems make acceptance impossible. v

In the event anything comes of my most cautious inquiries which may prove to be an avenue which I think you or your friends should explore, I'll immediately contact you and provide you with entree. v

With regard to the enclosed expenses - I consider the bill paid in full as indicated. If you feel any portion should be disallowed or is unreasonable, please let me know and I will remit soonest. v

With best personal regards. v

On January 14, 1972, HUNT returned a letter expressing his regrets that BAUMAN could not accept his offer. A copy of this letter follows: u

Dear Jack:.

I received your letter with far more regret than surprise, and understand your reasons fully - I think. u

George and I appreciate the trouble you went to on our account, and for my part it was rewarding to see an old and valued friend. I assume your verbal offer to cooperate peripherally still holds, and so may ask you to go my bona fides with the retiree you interviewed, should the occasion arise. Naturally, I would be glad to compensate for whatever of your time might be involved. u

Business aside, let me remark that you are involved in a demanding project which I hope will materialize. Given the rather panoramic character of past grants by OE and OEO, your project ought to win out on merit alone. Obviously, you've put in a great deal of thought and time on it, and to me at least it makes sense. u

So, as the sun dips low over the far shore of Lake Dot, your old comrade-in-arms takes leave of his somewhat younger buddy and once again attains low visibility in a land where high profile is what usually counts. u

Best,

Howard

[REDACTED] however, he never did make such contact, or advise HUNT of the person he had in mind. He stated that the comments concerning the sun dipping low over Lake Dot were lost on him, and appear to be literary ramblings of HUNT. * (U)

BAUMAN advised that he is not familiar with BERNARD L. BARKER, FRANK CARTER, VIRGIL R. GONZALES, RAUL GODOY, EUGENIO ROLANDO MARTINEZ, Y CREAGA, GENE VALDES, FRANK ANTHONY FIORINI, or FRANK A. STURGIS. He stated that the name CHARLES W. COLSON is unknown to him. u

BAUMAN advised that HUNT never discussed or mentioned his associates, exact nature of the job, or any of the names of the subjects. u

He stated he is not aware of HUNT'S current activities other than those connected with the public relations firm of ROBERT R. MULLENS AND COMPANY, and as a White House Consultant. He stated he has never read any of HUNT'S published works and HUNT never mentioned any to him. u

BAUMAN advised he is of the opinion that he can identify the individual who accompanied HUNT at the meeting in Miami and Washington, D.C. u

BAUMAN advised that he is of the opinion that the name E. WARREN may be a name used by HUNT on occasion when he called BAUMAN'S residence and spoke to members of his family. He further advised that E. WARREN may have been the name given to him by HUNT to furnish to AMATO. u

He stated that he has not contacted or been contacted by anyone directly or indirectly in connection with the burglary of Democratic Campaign Headquarters. u

He stated that he bears no animosity toward HOWARD HUNT and still has considerable respect for him and feels that his objectives as far as he understood at the time, were honorable. u

He advised that in light of his physical condition he would desire not to have to testify concerning this matter, but stated that he would have no objection to furnishing a sworn deposition. u

ROBERT A. ~~HODGES~~, 4071 Mandarin, telephone 694-3825 is the owner and operator of Allied Television Sales and Service (ATSS), 3828 Woodside Avenue, Ft. Myers, Florida, telephone OX4-1235. MR'S FT. MYERS, FLA

Mr. HODGES indicated that the names, GEORGE LEONARD and E. J. WARREN were not familiar to him. He recognized the name, JAMES MC CORD as the name he had seen recently in the newspaper in connection with the breakin of Democratic Party Headquarters. He does not know MC CORD, BERNARD BARKER, VIRGIRLO GONZALES, GENE VALDES, or FRANK FIORINI. He stated that HOWARD HUNT is known to him inasmuch as HUNT is a cousin of his wife, ~~HELEN HODGES~~, whose maiden name was HELEN PROSSER. HODGES stated that he met HOWARD HUNT on one occasion about eight years ago at Ft. Myers Beach, Florida, and has not seen him since that time. HELEN PROSSER

HODGES indicated that he did not receive a long distance telephone call at his residence on or about December 28, 1971 from Miami, Florida, but states that if the call was made during the day time, it probably would have been received by his wife. He explained that while the HODGES do not see HUNT, he does write periodically or call Mrs. HODGES on the telephone. ~

HODGES understands that HOWARD HUNT is on the White House Staff and in addition, is an author who writes mystery stories using various pen names. The only "pen name" HODGES could recall was DIETRICH (phonetic). ~

Mr. HODGES stated that his wife had been very ill the past few days and he felt it might be injurious to her health if she were interviewed at this time. He indicated that she would probably be feeling better in three or four days. ~
